The American Association of Suicidology (AAS) is the world’s largest and nation’s oldest membership-based suicide prevention organization. Founded in 1968 by Edwin S. Shneidman, PhD, AAS promotes the research of suicide and its prevention, public awareness programs, public education and training for professionals and volunteers. Learn more at www.suicidology.org.

The World Suicide Prevention Day Benefit will take place on Sunday, September 10, 2023 at The Bowery Electric in New York City. This very special night will honor Kendall Toole as the first recipient of the AAS Make An Impact Award. The event will be hosted by legendary New York City radio personality Maria Milito and will feature live music performances from Dave Hause and Emily Wolfe. The night will also include powerful stories, special guests and incredible performances!
