LOOKING BACK, MOVING FORWARD

On behalf of our Board of Directors, welcome to the 57th Annual AAS Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada! Over the next few days, we have a robust schedule filled with opportunities for connection, learning from insightful sessions, and exploring our exhibit hall. Our conference marks an exciting time at AAS as we embark on new endeavors, and we are thrilled you are joining us.

I want to thank our President and CEO, Leeann Sherman, whose impact over the past year has been remarkable. In her relatively brief tenure with AAS, Leeann has strategically led growth across all aspects of our organization. Achieving such growth requires meticulous planning, effective execution, and a team of dedicated professionals, and under Leeann's leadership, AAS has seen significant progress.

From strengthening development initiatives to expanding programs and community resources, AAS has made significant steps forward and continues to thrive under Leeann's leadership. Her dedication has infused our organization with renewed energy and purpose that will position us for continued success as we remain committed to serving our community and advancing our mission of suicide prevention and intervention.

As we gather here in Las Vegas, let us take inspiration from Leeann's achievements and channel that energy into our collective efforts to make a difference. We thank Leeann and the AAS team for their dedication and commitment to our cause.

And of course, to you, our community, I want to express my deepest appreciation for you and those who do this important work every day. From clinicians to community organizations, service providers, and individuals with lived experience, your dedication drives impact. Through our shared commitment, we continue to make progress in suicide prevention, intervention, and advocacy. United we stand in our mission to save lives and promote mental wellness.

TONY CODER

AAS BOARD OF DIRECTORS, CHAIR

Welcome to Las Vegas! It is a pleasure to have each of you here as we come together to advance our mission in suicidology. I am honored to be surrounded by passionate individuals committed to making an impact.

Amidst the bright lights and energy of this iconic destination, let us remember the purpose that unites us — to save lives and offer hope to those in crisis. Throughout AAS24, we will build bridges, share knowledge, and amplify our influence in the field. Our commitment to education, research, and advocacy remains unwavering as we strive to create a more supportive and resilient environment for all.

Remember to download the Conference app and visit our exhibitors. Your feedback is crucial for the success of this conference, so share your thoughts and ideas to better enhance your conference experience. Organizing a conference requires a great deal of work and resources to which I express my gratitude to our submission reviewers, Board of Directors, AAS Staff Team, and Investors for their commitment to this event.

Thank you for your dedication to this shared cause. Together, we have the power to MAKE AN IMPACT and save lives. Let us embrace the next five days as an opportunity to learn, connect, and inspire one another. Welcome to the conference, and I look forward to the transformative experiences and meaningful connections ahead.

LEEANN SHERMAN, MPS, CAE

AWARD DESCRIPTIONS

Crisis Services Award

Nominations may come from anyone including the Crisis Call Center itself, an AAS member, or from someone who knows of or benefited from the program. Eligible nominees for the following are AAS organizational members in crisis services. Winners will be determined based on the demonstrated quality and effectiveness of their service, their ability to infuse core values of suicide prevention and mental wellness into their practices, community impact, and resilience in addressing the most challenging community behavioral health needs.

Edwin S. Shneidman Award

Eligible nominees for the Edwin S. Shneidman Award must be a person under forty years of age or a person who is not more than ten years past their highest degree earned. The eligible nominee is a person who has made outstanding contributions in research in the field of suicidology.

Loss Survivor Award

The Loss Survivor Award has been given since 1995 to acknowledge ways in which survivors of suicide transform the trauma of their loss into suicide prevention efforts and/or survivor support. It is intended to recognize significant accomplishments of an individual involved with suicide prevention, intervention and/or postvention advocacy/activism that embodies the mission of AAS.

Morton M. Silverman Student Award

Eligible nominees for the Morton M. Silverman Student Award for a paper written by a student on a topic directly related to the field of suicidology. Anyone who is pursuing a degree in her/his/their field and is currently enrolled as a full-time undergraduate, graduate, professional, or medical student or trainee is eligible. Specific Entry Criteria: Submission must be double-spaced, APA format with 100-150 word abstract, references, tables and figures, etc. on separate pages.

Roger J. Tierney Service Award

The Roger J. Tierney Service Award recognizes time and effort given to advance the association's principles, growth, and development, and/or for applied contributions to the fields of suicidology and crisis intervention. The award is to recognize broadly defined service contributions that are to be distinguished from academic or research endeavors.

Transforming Lived Experience Award

The Transforming Lived Experience Award acknowledges a person who has survived his or her own suicidal experiences and transformed their pain into suicide prevention and recovery efforts. It is intended to recognize significant accomplishments in suicide prevention, intervention, advocacy, and/or recovery that embody the mission of AAS.

Louis I. Dublin Award

The Louis I. Dublin Award is a lifetime achievement award for outstanding services/contributions to the field of suicide prevention as evidenced by leadership, devotion, and creativity.

EARN CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS

Continuing education hours are provided to support your professional development. The number of credits awarded will depend on your selection of NASW, APA, or NBCC during registration, as well as verified attendance at workshops.

At AAS24, scan your badge in and out of each workshop for accurate credit allocation. Participants will gain access to the conference evaluation on May 10th and can expect to receive their certificate of attendance within 30 days of the event completion. Direct all inquiries regarding AAS24 continuing education to training@suicidology.org.

As an attendee, you can also earn continuing education credits (CEUs)! We have various CE credits through the following accrediting bodies:

Psychologists: The American Association of Suicidology (AAS) is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. AAS maintains responsibility for this program and its content.

Social Workers: This program is Approved by the National Association of Social Workers.

Counselors: The American Association of Suicidology (AAS) has been approved by NBCC as an Approved Continuing Education Provider, ACEP No. 5607. Programs that do not qualify for NBCC credit are clearly identified. AAS is solely responsible for all aspects of the programs.

Note: Attendees must attend the full session to receive CE credits

The data collected allows us to determine which sessions are of interest with attendees therefore will be a positive addition to the planning process for AAS25 and all future events.

**Continuing education requirements vary from state to state. Many state boards grant reciprocity with national accrediting organizations and other state boards. It is the responsibility of each professional to understand the requirements for license renewal or contact the appropriate state or national licensing board and/or professional organization to become familiar with their policies for acceptable continuing education credit. Social workers should contact their regulatory board to determine course approval.*

This program is Approved by the National Association of Social Workers (Approval # 886455354-2923) for 37 continuing education contact hours.

The American Association of Suicidology has been approved by NBCC as an Approved Continuing Education Provider, ACEP No. 5607. Programs that do not qualify for NBCC credit are clearly identified. The American Association of Suicidology is solely responsible for all aspects of the programs.

The American Association of Suicidology (AAS) is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. AAS maintains responsibility for the program and its content.

WELLNESS ROOM

brought to you by

The AAS Wellness Room is a space designed to help improve the mental health and well-being of AAS24 attendees. Brought to you by 988 and Vibrant Emotional Health, step into a space free of lights and action where you can settle into an aromatherapy relaxation, color the large coloring posters, read, meditate, or partake in various other activities. Need to talk? Qualified volunteers are on hand should you need to talk.

8am - 9:15am

Opening Breakfast Keynote with Col. Nicole Malachowski, USAF (Ret.)

4 Breaking Barriers: Conquering Self-Doubt and Cultural Paradigms

First Woman Thunderbird Pilot, Combat Veteran, Fighter Squadron Commander, White House Fellow & Advisor, and Indomitable Spirit shares her story as she forged a path through some immense cultural changes in the military as well as significant adversity. She has had to face 'the unexpected' in her life. Hers is an inspiring story of the power of determination and the drive of a truly indomitable spirit.

Col. Nicole Malachowski, USAF (Ret.) defies stereotypes. Yes, she was a jet fighter pilot, but if you think you know her based on that, you'd be wrong. A leader, a combat veteran, the first woman pilot on the Thunderbirds Air Demonstration Squadron, a White House Fellow, and an inductee into both the National Women's Hall of Fame and the Women in Aviation International Pioneer Hall of Fame—she even has a Star Trek Federation starship named after her, the USS Malachowski (NCC-1619). Nicole's distinguished 21-year Air Force career exceeded her wildest dreams. But the dream came to an end when a devastating tick-borne illness left her struggling greatly to speak or walk for almost nine months. An indomitable spirit, Nicole fought back against overwhelming odds and prevailed. Drawing on stories from her career and personal life, Nicole inspires audiences to rethink the challenges they face every day. She urges them to go beyond resilience and become resurgent. Nicole's empowers people with three key beliefs: failure and risk is the price of entry for achieving something great; sometimes you need to yield to overcome; and her personal mantra – “Nobody wants to lead a scripted life.”
